COLLEGE COSTS ARE GOING UP. BUT SO IS THE ARMY COLLEGE FUND.

Tuition, books, lab fees, college living expenses—all seem to be climbing relentlessly. Well, here's some good news from the Army. Today's Army College Fund is climbing too. You can now accumulate over $25,000 for college, if you qualify.

What's more, you'll study, learn and become proficient in a useful skill. It could be a skill with so wide an application in both military and civilian life that it might help you decide what to take in college.

If you're determined to go on to college, but you don't know where the money is coming from, pick up an Army College Fund booklet from your local recruiter. It offers several options you'll want to investigate. Stop by or call:

THE MID-STATE FOOTBALL CLASSIC

The Lewistown Area Lions Club sponsored a regional All-Star game in 1977 and again in 1978. The games, while excellent samplings of All-Star football, were less than successful financially.

These games were played before off-campus recruiting was prohibited between May 1 and August 1. Brian Franco, placekicker from Altoona High School was signed to a full athletic grant at Penn State. This seems to be the first scholarship as a direct result of a Central Pennsylvania football All-Star game!

The Pennsylvania Big 33 game becomes an interstate game with Maryland for 1985. This will reduce the number of Pennsylvanians who will participate in the Big 33. Thus there was a need for a regional All-Star game.

The Mid-State Football Classic is the result of that need plus the efforts of the Central Pennsylvania Football Coaches Association.

The Mid-State Football Classic is unique among regional All-Star football games. It is a game run by the local football coaches association under the sponsorship of area businesses.

The Business Advisory Council supplied early financial support and credibility and a foundation which helps to assure the continuation of this Classic. The player sponsors and program advertisers have continued that support and enlarged our base.

The goals of this All-Star game are the recognition of excellence in regional football performance, promotion of football in general and high school football specifically, and funding for a program of scholarships and ongoing education in football. These are, perhaps, lofty ideals, but their value is to some extent found in striving to achieve them.

The degree to which we are able to achieve our goals will depend upon the continuation of support by football and sports fans.

Player Selections

Players are selected for this game by the members of the Central Pennsylvania Football Coaches Association through a multi-step process. This selection proceeds as follows:

1. Players are nominated by written nomination in December and January. Each school may nominate no more than five players.
2. Players nominated are polled to ascertain that they will play if selected.
3. Each school's coach is asked to make one "automatic selection." This player will definitely be named for the game.
4. Members of the association select coaching staffs from among schools in each division—North and South.
5. After film review and with advice from coaches within each division, the balance of players are selected by each staff.

Division of schools is on a geographic and attendance basis. The total enrollments within the division are within 20 students of each other.

STATE COLLEGE

LOOKING BACK: THE FIRST LOCAL ALL-STAR GAME

By DOUG McDONALD
Senior Sports Writer
Centre Daily Times
State College, Pa.

Probably the first all-star football game involving area seniors was staged at the Bellefonte Athletic Field Aug. 5, 1960. In that game, the South beat the North, 7-6, before 3,500 fans.

The game, sponsored by the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce and 17 other civic organizations, attracted 43 players from 14 Central Counties Conference schools.

Lock Haven, Philipsburg-Osceola, Clearfield, Bellefonte, Jersey Shore, Tyrone and BEA provided the talent for the North squad while Lewistown, State College, Chief Logan, Huntingdon, Penns Valley, Hollidaysburg and Captain Jack (now Mount Union) provided the players for the South.

Tut Moore (P-O) and Don Malinak (Lock Haven) coached the North while Andy Radi and Steve Prisuta of Chief Logan directed the South All-Stars.

The South scored with 4:03 left in the first half when Lewistown's Ralph Slemmons capped an 84-yard drive with a one-yard run. John Kipp of Chief Logan booted the extra point to make it 7-0 at halftime.

The touchdown was set up by Ralph Baker, Lewistown tackle, who recovered a North fumble at the 16.

Baker went on to play for the Penn State Nittany Lions and then the New York Jets. He played on the New York team which beat Baltimore for the Super Bowl title. Baker later served as linebacker coach for the Jets.

The North scored with :54 left in the game when BEA quarterback Torry Confer hit paydirt from one yard out. The PAT attempt (Captain Jack) were outstanding in the drive.

Slemmons and Garcia Welshans (Jersey Shore) were named the top players in the game by members of the Central Pennsylvania Association of Sportswriters, whose idea it was to stage the game.

Proceeds went to the Bellefonte YMCA and the Community Betterment Fund.

Two players who participated in the game - Alex Murnyack of BEA and Dick Cummings of Lewistown - coach and teach at their respective schools today.

Six members of the Centre County Chapter of PIAA Football Officials - John Solic, Bill Schott, Glenn Shaffer, Charlie Kunes, Andy Visnovsky and Don Antes - donated their time to work the game.

The Bellefonte High Band provided the music along with the Gardner Guards of Tyrone.

The South team had co-captains - Howard and Searer - while the North went with tri-captains - Confer, Ted Kasubick of P-O and Mike Vuocolo of Lock Haven.

A banquet was held on the eve of the game at the Bellefonte YMCA were Tor Toretti, Penn State assistant football coach, addressed the players, coaches, media and sponsors.

LOCAL PROS

By Ron Bracken
Centre Daily Times

It may not have the reputation of the WPIAL or the Coal Region for producing NFL-caliber football players but the Central Pennsylvania Region, that area which has spawned the players who will be on the field tonight, has done well enough in its own right.

A quick and by no means all-encompassing survey reveals that at least 18 players who would have been eligible to compete in the Mid-State Classic, had there been one in their playing days, went on to make the final roster of a professional football team, or at least survived training camp to the final cut.

Not surprisingly, almost half of them (eight, nine if Troy Benson sticks with the Jets this summer), played their high school football at Altoona.

Probably the most widely known of the ex-Mountain Lions is Mike Reid, who became an All-American defensive tackle at Penn State and an All-Pro with the Cincinnati Bengals before retiring to become a successful song writer.

John Ebersole, who had a fine career with Penn State and the New York Jets, was a teammate of Reid's, both at Altoona and Penn State.

Brad Benson is still active in pro football as an offensive lineman with the New York Giants. He was a tri-captain at Penn State where he was an offensive tackle and also wrestled. He was a PIAA heavyweight wrestling champion in his senior year at Altoona.

Placekicker Brian Franco is another former Mountain Lion and Nittany Lion still active in professional football. He is kicking for the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL.

Among the other former Altoona standouts who played for varying lengths of time in the pros are Ed Flanagan, who played for the Detroit Lions and is now an assistant coach with the USFL's Oakland Invaders; Jim Curry, who was with the Dallas-Cowboys in the early '60s; Steve Lach, who played for the Steelers in the '40s; and Blaine Earon, who was with the Lions in the late '40s.

Hollidaysburg's Jim Merritts, a defensive lineman who played his collegiate ball at West Virginia, is still on the roster of the Memphis Showboats of the USFL as is ex-Central star receiver Mark Raush.

State College has produced two pros.

Matt Suhey is currently the fullback for the Chicago Bears after starring for the Little Lions as a tailback and a fullback for the Nittany Lions.

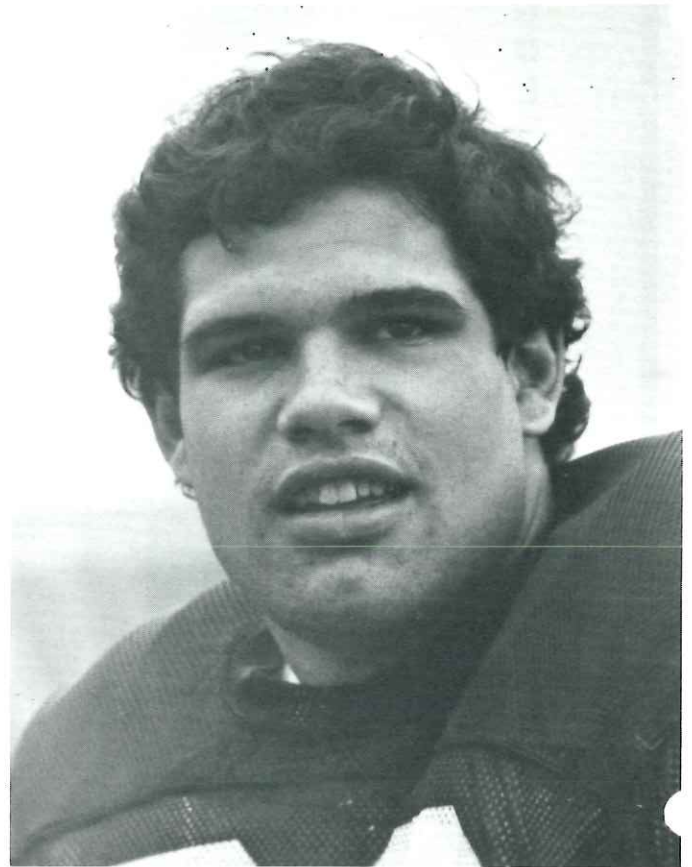

And Dave Joyner, who is now a successful orthopedic surgeon in Camp Hill, was an All-American offensive tackle and co-captain of the 1972 Cotton Bowl squad which beat Texas before playing briefly for the Philadelphia Bell of the old World Football League.

The Lewistown area also sent two sons to the NFL and one of them is still there.

Ex-Panther Ralph Baker went on to Penn State where he captained the 1963 team as a center. He went on to become a starting linebacker for the New York Jets and was a member of their 1969 Super Bowl squad. He is now an assistant coach with the Jets.

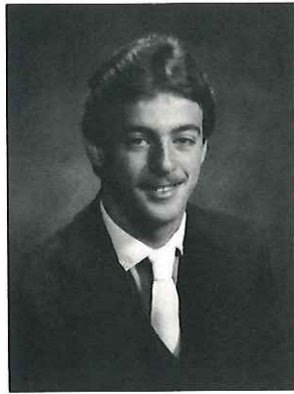

Chief Logan also sent the Nittany Lions a future pro in Dave Bradley, who was a great offensive end for the Min-goies but grew into an offensive lineman for Penn State. He was a starting offensive tackle on the undefeated 1968 Orange Bowl squad and went on to play for the Green Bay Packers and St. Louis Cardinals before retiring from the game.

At least two other players from the region made it to the final cut with NFL teams. Jerry Spackman, an end from Bald Eagle Area in the early '60s, was one of the last players cut by the San Francisco 49ers while quarterback Mike Packer of Lock Haven lasted to the final cut with the New York Jets in the early '70s.
