

2004 All-CSFL Honors

The College Sprint Football League has announced it's all-Conference Teams for the 2004 season.

Navy, the CSFL champion, had eight players on the list of first-team performers. Pennsylvania had the second-highest total of first-team players with seven. Army and Cornell each had a total of four players while Princeton placed three on the list. Pennsylvania led the way on offense with five honorees, while Navy topped the defensive list with four players.

Navy's Brian Nagle captured the Kays Award, which is given to the league's most valuable player. The junior quarterback led the Midshipmen to an undefeated season and their second CSFL crown in three years. Nagle completed 72 of 113 passes and threw ten scoring strikes while averaging 207.7 yards per game.

CSFL League MVP: Brian Nagle, QB, Navy

	First Team	Second Team
OFFENSE
QB	Mike Loguidice, Penn	Braden Amigo, Army Dennis Bakke, Princeton
RB	J.T. Hutchinson, Penn Jake Owens, Navy Amir Shareef, Navy	Michael Fullowan, Cornell Nathan Navarro, Army Trevor Garabedian-Prophet, Navy
WR	Jon Amoon, Cornell Patrick Monaghan, Penn	Lon Johnson, Princeton Kevin Laughary, Navy A.J. Storrs, Navy
TE	David Derr, Penn	Jonathan Chunn, Navy
OL	Matt Crompton, Navy Elon D'Anjou, Cornell Ben Drane, Penn Bennett Graham, Princeton Alfred Shepard, Army	Jason Barnes, Navy Jordan Cloyd, Penn Philippe Marquet, Cornell Cody Pittman, Army Joe Weiderhold, Cornell
KICKER	Joey Bullen, Navy	Justin Koenig, Army
DEFENSE
DB	John Lenart, Army Charles Lewis, Navy LaRue Robinson, Cornell Marcus Walters, Navy	Patrick Flores, Navy Andrew Holmes, Navy Daniel Morse, Army Roderick Roberts, Army Jason Zittel, Cornell
LB	Michael Kelvington, Army Mike Russo, Penn William Snider, Cornell Matt Worley, Princeton	Ryan Engle, Navy Kalen Smith, Army

DL	Dane Brown, Navy Brandon Kennedy, Army Nicholas Kopec, Penn David Novotney, Navy	Derek Johnson, Cornell Zach McKinney, Princeton Doug Pires, Penn Amos Smith, Cornell
PUNTER	Neil Swami, Princeton	Jason Zittel, Cornell

All-League Honorable Mentions

Army: Christian Abney, Patrick Hall, Clayton Mealer, Brandon Newkirk

Cornell: Matt Collin, Chris Deutschman, Ben Herzberger, Nick Livigne, Alec Macaulay

Navy: Brett Abbamonte, K.C. Daulton, Francis Pascucci, John Pico

Penn: Nicholas Dinges, David Lopez, Robert Pelly, Mike Sanders, Adam Schlosser, Henry Watson

Princeton: Taylor Bright, Elias Hicks, Frank Langston, Michael Mangone, Chris O'Neil, David Stopher

Week 8 in Review

Navy finished with a perfect record and captured the CSFL crown with a 27-10 victory over Army. The Midshipmen trailed, 10-9, after three quarters, but came back to score 18 unanswered points in the final period. It was the 30th league title for the Midshipmen and the program is now tied with Army for the most titles in CSFL history. It was also the 23rd outright title for the Navy.

Pennsylvania capped off its season with a 61-28 win over Princeton. The Tigers scored the first touchdown of the game, but the Quakers rallied for 39 unanswered points to put the game away. Penn captured its third consecutive William Wagner trophy, the award given to the Ivy League team with the best CSFL record.

Cornell had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Mike Loguidice, Penn

The sophomore signal caller has one of the finest performances of his Quaker career. Loguidice completed 13 of 14 passes for 273 yards. Loguidice also threw three touchdown passes with one going for 69 yards. He finished with the highest passing total in the league for 2004. Loguidice also rushed for two touchdowns.

Defensive Player of the Week—Dane Brown, Navy

The senior defensive lineman made his final game a memorable one as he helped the Midshipmen wrap up the CSFL crown. Brown recorded eight tackles against Army and also provided plenty of pressure in the pocket. He picked up three quarterback sacks for a combined total of minus-14 yards.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Tomas Altamirano, Penn

The freshman was strong on special teams in Penn's 61-28 win over Princeton. He gave the Quakers excellent field position throughout the evening. Altamirano returned a punt for 43 yards and two kickoffs for 35 yards.

Week 7 in Review

Navy remained unbeaten on the season with a 45-7 victory over Pennsylvania. The Midshipmen broke the game open in the second quarter with three touchdowns to take a 24-0 lead at the half. Navy gained 459 total yards on offense, with 304 coming from the passing game. Navy held the powerful Penn passing attack to 108 yards.

Army stayed in contention with a 37-7 victory over Cornell. The Black Knights put the game away early by scoring on their first three possessions. Army piled up 488 yards of total offense, including 348 on the ground. The Black Knights' defense held Cornell to 179 yards of total offense.

Princeton had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Brian Nagle, Navy

The junior quarterback threw for 305 yards in Navy's win over Pennsylvania. Nagle completed 15 of 24 passes and also threw a 17-yard touchdown strike to Kevin Laughery in the fourth quarter. One of Nagle's passes in the game went for 64 yards.

Defensive Player of the Week—Brandon Kennedy, Army

The junior defensive lineman dominated the line of scrimmage during Army's win over Cornell. Kennedy finished with a game-high 11 tackles. He also racked up 1.5 sacks. Kennedy was part of an Army defense that limited Cornell to 179 yards of offense.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Trevor Garabedian-Prophet, Navy

Garabedian-Prophet made the most out of the second half kickoff in Navy's win against Penn. The junior put the game away with an 85-yard kick return for a touchdown. The touchdown gave Navy a 31-0 lead.

Week 6 in Review

Cornell handed Pennsylvania its first loss of the year as the Big Red came away with a 34-27 win. The Quakers lost for the first time this season despite out-gaining the Big Red, 460-298. The two teams combined for five touchdowns in the second quarter as Cornell took a 21-14 lead. The Big Red have now won two games in a row.

Navy moved into sole possession of first place with a 61-20 victory over Princeton. The Midshipmen jumped out to a 54-6 lead after one half and scored two touchdowns in a span of one minute. Navy is now the only undefeated team in the league and finished with a combined 148 points in two games against the Tigers this season.

Army had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Alec Macaulay, Cornell

The junior threw for 208 yards and four touchdowns as he led Cornell to its second straight victory. Macaulay, who has been splitting time at quarterback with Nick LiVigne throughout the season, threw three of his touchdown passes in the second quarter. He also threw a 45-yard scoring pass to put the game away in the fourth quarter.

Defensive Player of the Week—William Snider, Cornell

The senior came up with a spectacular performance in Cornell's upset victory over Penn. Snider was involved in 13 tackles on the night. Eight of Snider's tackles were unassisted. He also had a sack of Penn quarterback Mike Loguidice for a nine-yard loss.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Pat Monaghan, Penn

While Monaghan was keeping busy with nine catches on offense, he also did his part on special teams against Cornell. Monaghan returned three kickoffs for 81 yards. One of his returns went for 54 yards. Monaghan also had a 33-yard punt in the game.

Week 5 in Review

Pennsylvania remained unbeaten on the season with a 31-17 victory over Army. It was the Quakers' first win over the Black Knights in four years. Army jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but Penn scored 17 unanswered points in the second quarter. The two teams combined for 846 yards of offense. Army fell to 3-2 with the loss.

Cornell picked up its first victory of the 2004 campaign. The Big Red won at Princeton, 32-19, with the help of a balanced offensive attack. Cornell had 208 yards rushing and 175 yards in the air. The Tigers cut the Cornell lead to 17-12 in the third quarter before the Big Red rolled up 15 straight points to put the game away.

Navy had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—J.T. Hutchinson, Penn

The sophomore tailback led the way in Penn's win over Army. Hutchinson rushed for 186 yards and two touchdowns. One of Hutchinson's scoring runs was a career-high 76-yard dash. Hutchinson also caught two passes for 33 yards and returned two kickoffs for 43 yards.

Defensive Player of the Week—Nick Kopec, Penn

The senior defensive end put on a dominating display against Army. Kopec recorded eight tackles and three sacks for a combined loss of 14 yards. Seven of Kopec's eight tackles were solo stops.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Jason Zittel, Cornell

The sophomore punter tipped the field in favor of Cornell in the Big Red's win over Princeton. Three of Zittel's four punts pinned the Tigers inside the 20-yard line. Zittel also had a fumble recovery on defense.

Week 4 in Review

Army bounced back from its first loss of the season with a 35-0 win over Princeton. The Black Knights used the big play throughout the night as four scoring plays went for 66 yards or longer. Army rolled on 475 yards of offense on only 38 plays. Princeton's offense held the ball for over 42 minutes, but the Tigers were victimized by six turnovers.

Navy raised its record to 3-0 with a 31-6 victory over Cornell. The Big Red jumped out to a 6-3 lead in the first quarter before the Midshipmen rolled up 28 unanswered points. The Navy defense held Cornell to 217 total yards. The Midshipmen's last seven wins have come by double digits.

Pennsylvania had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Braden Amigo, Army

The junior quarterback accounted for four touchdowns and amassed 349 yards of offense in Army's win over Princeton. Amigo passed for 225 yards and also rushed for 124 yards. One of his touchdowns came on a 94-yard run. Amigo also threw touchdown passes from 66, 80 and 79 yards out.

Defensive Player of the Week—Mike Kelvington, Army

The senior came up with another dominating performance in Army's win over Princeton. Kelvington had 17 tackles and an interception. Fifteen of Kelvington's tackles were solo stops. Kelvington has led the league in tackles since the opening week of the season.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Kurt Cheesman, Army

The senior kicker put points on the board and also helped his squad win the field position battle. Cheesman was a perfect 5-for-5 on extra points. He also three punts for an average of 43.7 yards as he kept Princeton pinned in its own territory throughout much of the evening.

Week 3 in Review

Navy came away with a 31-15 win over Army in the annual Pride Bowl. The Midshipmen captured the event for the fourth straight year as they racked up 449 yards on offense. The Black Knights took an early 3-0 lead, but Navy scored 24 unanswered points before the half to take control of the game. The win raised Navy's record to 2-0, while Army dropped to 2-1.

Pennsylvania remained unbeaten on the season with a 49-8 win at Princeton. The Quakers jumped out to a 22-0 first half lead before the Tigers cut the margin to 14 at the half. Penn finished with 440 yards on offense, with 257 coming through the air. Princeton fell to 0-2 with the loss.

Cornell had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Mike Loguidice, Penn

The sophomore quarterback put on a dazzling display in Penn's win over Princeton. Loguidice threw for 231 yards and four touchdowns as he completed 12 of his 21 passes. He has now thrown for 482 yards on the season.

Defensive Player of the Week—David Novotney, Navy

The sophomore defensive tackle was everywhere in Navy's win over Army. Four of Novotney's eight tackles came from behind the line of scrimmage. He also forced a fumble, intercepted a pass and blocked a kick in Navy's Pride Bowl victory.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Joey Bullen, Navy

The freshman wins the award for the second week in a row. Bullen hit a 49-yard field goal in Navy's win over Army. The field goal came in the closing moments of the first half. Bullen also converted on all four of his extra point attempts.

Week 2 in Review

Four teams took the field on Friday night for head-to-head league contests. Navy came up with a dominating performance as the Midshipmen routed Princeton, 77-16. Navy scored 28 points in the first quarter and built a 63-3 halftime lead. The Navy offense racked up 559 total yards with 409 coming in the first half. Princeton suffered its sixth straight loss in the series.

Army came up with a strong rushing performance in a 24-6 win over Cornell. The Black Knights picked up 333 yards on the ground while limiting the Big Red rushing attack to only 48 yards. Army took a 14-0 lead before yielding its first points of the season in the second quarter. Cornell converted only three third downs in 15 attempts.

Pennsylvania had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—Jacob Massacci, Army

The fullback led a bruising ground attack in Army's win over Cornell. Massacci rushed for 149 yards on 27 carries and helped keep the ball in the hands of the Black Knights throughout much of the contest. Massacci averaged 5.5 yards per carry.

Defensive Player of the Week—Dane Brown, Navy

The senior defensive lineman put on a dominating display in Navy's win over Princeton. Brown collected six tackles with three coming from behind the line of scrimmage. The three tackles behind the line resulted in a total loss of 23 yards for the Tigers.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Joey Bullen, Navy

The freshman had an impressive debut in his first game for the Midshipmen. Bullen was 10-for-10 on his extra-point attempts in Navy's win over Princeton. Bullen also blasted five kickoffs into the end zone with two going for touchbacks.

Week 1 in Review

The 2004 Sprint Football season officially got underway this past weekend. In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania kicked off its season with a 35-13 victory over Cornell. The Big Red took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Quakers rattled off 35 unanswered points and put the game away in the third quarter. Both teams gained 112 yards on the ground, but the Penn air attack proved to be the difference. The Quakers racked up 251 passing yards and 363 total yards. Cornell was 0-for-14 on third down conversions, but the Big Red defense picked up seven sacks in the loss.

Defending champion Army kicked off its season with a 14-0 win over Marist JV. The Black Knights out gained the Red Foxes, 248-93, and scores both of their touchdowns in the second quarter. Army's defense overwhelmed Marist as the Black Knights picked up five sacks and held Marist to 3-for-17 on third down conversions.

Navy and Princeton had the week off.

Offensive Player of the Week—J.T. Hutchinson, Pennsylvania

In his first collegiate start, the sophomore tailback rushed for 114 yards and four touchdowns in Penn's victory over Cornell. One of Hutchinson's touchdowns came on a 54-yard run in the second quarter that put the Quakers ahead for good.

Defensive Player of the Week—Mike Kelvington, Army

The senior linebacker picked up right where he left off last season with a dominating performance against Marist JV. Kelvington racked up nine tackles and a sack. Kelvington's sack helped preserve Army's shutout as he brought down Marist quarterback Matthew Avalone late in the fourth quarter.

Special Teams Player of the Week—Pete Stine, Pennsylvania

The sophomore had an impressive debut in his first game for the Quakers. Stine converted all five of his extra-point attempts in Penn's win over Cornell.